Caliber Collision Exceeds 200 Locations With FCC Collision Acquisition in California

Caliber Collision Adds Four New Locations in the California Market

LEWISVILLE, TX – November 17, 2014 – Caliber Collision Centers, the largest collision repair company in the U.S., announced their expansion in California with the acquisition of FCC Collision Centers today.

FCC Collision has been an industry leader for more than thirty-five years in California and has four convenient locations in Silicon Valley. Steve Grimshaw, Caliber Collision Chief Executive Officer announced, “The FCC Collision facilities and management team perfectly complement Caliber’s purpose, vision and mission with the California market. FCC has consistently delivered unparalleled customer satisfaction and industry-leading operational consistency in Silicon Valley for decades. We are very excited to add these new members to the Caliber family.”

“Our family has built a company that delivers high quality service and gives back to the communities we serve. We are pleased that Caliber Collision will offer our associates a bright future, with continued involvement in our local communities,” stated Adam, Jason, and Matt Piper, Owners of FCC Collision.
